I am 55 yrs old and have worked from the age of eighteen never been unemployed I started work after my leaving cert my first job lasted for nineteen yr were I received good wages and all increases my second job no pay rises only the pay rises I receive on mim wage the mim wage is great for young person starting off but for some of my age it needs to be a living wage although working we are on such a low wage we cant save or but money away for old age its hard to manage and pay all bills on such a low income but please continue with mim wage increases however small we really need it ideally it should be a living wage I have always worked make it fairer for people like me

Kind regards
