

Dear Sir / madam,

I work as bar person in busy hotel in [REDACTED] for 13 years still on minimum wage to me that not right it absolute total insult, I blame this government and hotel federation. I started working with company 2005 8.00 per hour after 40 hours it was time and half, double time on Sunday, as time went by minimum wage increased gradually I still had my entitlement, time recession hit this country (Ireland) 2009/ 2010. 1st July 2007 the minimum wage increased I was still getting my normal time pay overtime pay double time on Sunday. In year 2010 my overtime premium was cut, that came flat rate pay still on double time on Sunday. In year 2011, normal rate of pay (minimum wage per hour) no overtime premium that came flat rate of pay and my Sunday pay was cut now from double time to time and third on Sunday.

My current pay at moment is 9.55 per hour

Time and third on Sunday

Mid Night Premium 1 per hour (that applies if you work at night), (I give you example if you start 6pm and finish work 4am, then I would get 4 euro extra)

Your sincerely

[REDACTED]